

STEPS TO THE CERTIFICATION PROCESS

Getting certified organic is a multistep process that ensures that you and your product maintain the integrity of the USDA organic seal. Organic certification is an annual cycle. Once you first complete the initial steps and achieve organic certification, you will update your OSP and receive an on-site inspection on an annual basis.

Initial Steps

Annual Cycle

